New data from 2001 census released today

Selected second release 2001 Census results at the Australia, State and Territory levels were released today by the Australian Bureau of Statistics (ABS).

The release, in the form of the summary publication Census, Second Release, Summary Publication (cat. no. 2046.0) contained data about Labour Force Status, Industry of Employment, Occupation and Qualifications. Data are presented in a narrative form. The summary publication also contained comparative data from the 1991, 1996 and 2001 Censuses where appropriate.

This publication was a web-based release.

Please note that today's summary publication is only a partial release of second release data variables. The main ABS release containing all of the second release 2001 Census data, for all local regions of Australia, will be released on Tuesday 19 November.
